RACING AT HARLEM.

Secretary Nathanson makes the important announcement that racing will open at Harlem Decoration Day, May 30. No stakes will be opened, for the present, at least. The money that has heretofore gone to such events will be devoted to enriching the purses, some of which will be as much as $500, $600, $700 and $800. Generally speaking, this is a policy that will meet with the approval of horse owners. The managing authorities of the club will select the racing officials at a meeting to be held Tuesday night.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The program book for the fifteen days racing at Lakeside has been issued by secretary Nathanson. It makes a uniform provision of five $400 purses for each day, but a sixth will no doubt be provided from "split" races. Rapid progress is being made in putting the track in order and everything will be spick and span when the gates are opened to the public next Thursday.

Yesterday's St. Louis Republic says: "The arrivals at the Fair Grounds yesterday included a batch of good horses from San Francisco. Barney Schreiber's trio of crack three-year-olds, Miss Marion, Jinks and Jerry Hunt, were accompanied by two broodmares that are to be sent to Woodlands. The broodmares are Colonial Dame, a four-year-old by Faverdale—Stately, and Ravelette, another four-year-old by Flambeau—Shannon Rose. Shannon Rose, the dam of Ravelette, is out of the celebrated California producing mare Fairy Rose, which also threw Racine, Fairy, Rosormonde and Rosebeau. The latter belonged to Mr. Schreiber and was killed in a railway accident while being shipped to St. Louis from the coast last month. Schreiber bought Ravelette because she is bred like the dead Rosebeau. Colonial Dame was bred at Brookdale stud, where they have some of the finest producing mares in America.

A division of Hugh L. Jones' stable also arrived from California in charge of the veteran horseman, Charlie Sanders. The useful three-year-old, Headwater, Prompto and Lucky Dog, are among the horses in Jones' string. Eddie Carey is expected along in a few weeks with another division of Jones' stable.

T. H. Boyle, a newcomer in these parts, arrived from the coast with the useful handicap horse, Moringa, and Artilleryman, a two-year-old bay colt by Artillery—Clara L. Artilleryman is a half-brother to the crack three-year-old Obsidian, in Burns & Waterhouse's stable. Mr. Boyle owns Clara L., and sold Obsidian to Burns & Waterhouse. Artilleryman is probably the biggest two-year-old at the racetrack. He stands 16.1 and is built in proportion. The colt is extensively engaged in stakes.
